The Little Brown Dog That Went North

We have had three American Water Spaniels, and they are a joy to be around. However we didn't want to start a for a couple of reasons. So I spent quite a bit of time looking at the old computer and the animal rescue, with no I had given up. For some reason, I don't know why, I looked again. To my surprise there were two AWS to be res believe one was a 1 1/2 year old male, but he was adopted quickly. Holding my breath I began reading about the one, and it was still available. It was just what I wanted-a female 6 years old that thinks she a pup, and she acts li pup too.

Splash was in Florida, hence the title, "the little brown dog that went north." I called and called and did not get anybody. I was afraid that someone would get my dog before I got my dog. I don't remember who I got first, the Ronda in California, Holly in the Midwest, and Capt Jeff in Florida. All I remember is I had to be first or I would MY DOG!

If I was a betting man I would put my money on Capt Jeff, I think he is the one I got on the phone first. The dog still there, the dog was living with Capp Jeff, and she was just the dog I needed. Capt Jeff and Leslie were very n BUT I had to call Ronda and if it was okayed call Jeff back and we would work out shipping plan. I'm not sure t think Ronda had to call Holly. All I KNOW IS I STILL DID NOT HAVE MY DOG.

After all of the paper work was done on 11/13/06 at 8:30 am eastern time our soon to be dog left Orlando, Florida. Splash first flew to Seattle, Washington had a two hour layover, then flew back over the mountain to Sp Washington where my wife and I picked her up. She was a joy to see and I love to feel their little smooth head. A some diner and a good walk we left Spokane and headed home to Okanogan, Washington.

We had a good trip home. There were a few stand offs with our other dogs, a lot of noise but not much fighting, t trying to get in their bluff. Splash loves to play with our little pup and its hard to believe she is now seven years o way she acts.

Judie and I would like to thank everyone who helped us get this little brown dog. How about all of the snow; SF LOVES IT. The only problem and all of my dogs have the same problem. The snow balls up on the hair of their and they must set down and chew it out. But she's not cold and loves to run in the snow.

And that's the end of the story of "The little brown dog that went north." She was just let in and now she is laying my chair where I can reach down and touch her. Again thanks to all who help and to God that for some reason h open that web site that day last year.

A Rescue Story

PS. we had three fishing trips and she stayed around where I could see her and loved the ride out and back. I had her in a boat but Capt Jeff said he had and she liked it.

Good Night to all. I think I will call Capt Jeff before I go to bed.
